

This album was produced, mixed, and “mastered” by me in 2019. Before I had learnt some hard lessons about mastering, but at the peak of my creative output. These songs feel like the culmination of a lot of life.

I have been slowly remastering it in iterations with a view to releasing a 10th anniversary edition that includes my other two favorite pieces - “Home” and “In Search of Lost Time.”

NOTES

- Metamorphosis quieter with less bass (avoid distortion at 2:02 and 2:20)
